

YOUTH-HOPE

A MINISTRY OF CHRISTIAN FRIENDLINESS

Camp Summit Counselor Job Description

Position Function:

To help carry out the primary purposes of Christian Friendliness (CF) under the direction of the Camp Director through leading groups of children and teens, assist in leading camp activities, and providing support to fellow counselors.

Three Primary Functions:

- Talk personally to each camper in your group and give them the opportunity to make a spiritual decision.
- Be sensitive to the emotional, physical and spiritual needs of your campers, find out “the story behind the story”.
- Serve together with C.I.T. and be an example of leadership to them.

Position Duties:

- Provide leadership, example and lifestyle of Jesus Christ.
- Abide by and cooperate with camp policies to set the tone of camp and help your campers do the same.
- Be a part of your group without being one of them. Campers look to the counselor for friendship, but also for authority.
- Lead daily devotions.
- Be responsible for the conduct of your campers.
- Encourage cleanliness in camper’s personal habits and in the bedroom.
- Encourage promptness throughout the day, including lights-out time.
- Put the well being of the campers before your own personal desires.
- Work cooperatively with other counselors and staff.
- Live in the housing and eat the meals provided by Camp Summit.
- Perform additional tasks and duties assigned by the Camp Director.

Position Requirements:

- Passionate about working with inner city children and youth.
- Must be at least 18 years old and one year removed from high school.
- Energetic and creative with strong multitasking abilities.
- Ability to use positive behavior management techniques with campers and an ability to adapt to difficult situations with a sense of maturity, safety, tact and poise.
- Participate in raising support for the ministry.

Position Compensation:

- Option 1
Receive a stipend of $500 from Christian Friendliness (to be paid back to the ministry from the first $500 raised). Receive up to another $3,000 from personal fundraising done through and with guidance from Christian Friendliness. Any additional money received after $3,500 will be given to CF as a donation.
- Option 2
Receive a weekly salary of $225 per week paid bi-weekly. Personal fundraising is still required.
- Both Options Include
Food and lodging during the week.
Arranged housing on weekends (if requested).
